

Communication Consent and User Agreement

Communication Consent Term

If you provide a cell phone number and/or email address ("contact") as part of your application, Texans Credit Union has your consent to use this contact to provide information regarding this application via calling, texting, email or otherwise. This contact may be by dialing the cell phone, by auto dialer, text or robot text methods. To protect your privacy, all email communication containing nonpublic personal information will be sent using an encrypted email service, requiring you to create a user ID and password and log in to access email correspondence. You understand that this consent is not required to obtain any services or loans from the Credit Union.

Consent to Electronic Records and Membership Agreement

To receive disclosures and other documents, you must accept and agree to the terms in the E-Signature and Electronic Disclosures Agreement ("Agreement"). Click on the link below to review the document.
